Re: Second Notice of Delinquency of Child Support Obligation and Intent to Deny or Suspend Professional License or Certificate
Miami-Dade County Circuit Court Case No.: _____

Dear _____

As counsel for Petitioner, _____ I am providing a second notice of intent to deny or suspend your professional license or certificate pursuant to Florida Statute 61.13015. After exhausting all other available remedies, this is our final option.

You now have a support obligation pursuant to your Final Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage entered on _____. Your monthly support obligation amount is $ _____. You have failed to otherwise pay obligation from _____ through _____. This results in _____ months of delinquency multiplied by the support per month and a resulting arrearage of $ _____.

Florida Statute 61.13015 states in part, “the obligor has 30 days from the date on which service of this notice is complete to pay the delinquency or to reach an agreement with the obligee to pay the delinquency.” Florida Statute 61.13015 also states, “if the obligor fails to respond to either notice from the obligee or if the obligor fails to pay the delinquency or to reach an agreement to pay the delinquency after the second notice, the obligee may petition the court to deny the application for the license or certificate or to suspend the license or certificate of the obligor.” Again, pursuant to court order, the professional license or certificate may be denied or suspended.

Should you have any questions regarding this notice, please do not hesitate to call upon me.

Respectfully submitted,

Support Solutions
